

Cumulative probability of reactivation

Line represents the probability that a well is reactivated within a number of months given that has not yet restarted production (Kaplan-Meier failure function).